Additional Music and Arts Offerings at Westminster

Visual Arts at Westminster

At Westminster, you can immerse yourself in the arts! New exhibits are regularly planned. Visit the Gallery, located on the lower level of the church, any time the building is open.

Anchor Coffee House

Westminster's Anchor Coffee House is a relaxed, intimate, family-friendly venue featuring local, regional, and nationally known folk, bluegrass, and blues artists. In addition to great music, delicious fair trade coffee, fresh hot tea, and homemade desserts are available to delight your taste buds while you enjoy the music! Free childcare is provided at each performance by a licensed childcare provider.

Upcoming performances include David Stoddard, Dave Glaser, Ry Taylor, Beth Wood, and Banjoy!

For more information or to purchase tickets, please visit www.westpres.org/anchor.

2018
WINTER & SPRING
EVENTS

Nebraska Wesleyan University Choir
Thursday, January 4, 7pm
Westminster Sanctuary

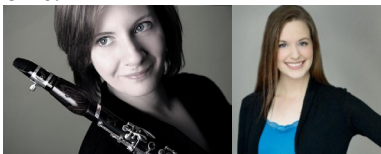

Enjoy the beautiful sounds of the Emmy-nominated Nebraska Wesleyan University Choir, a 52-voice ensemble directed by William A. Wyman. Recognized internationally for its performing excellence, the choir will present a varied program rich in global diversity.

Organ and Winds Recital
Sunday, February 11, 3pm
Westminster Sanctuary

Hear Westminster's own, Kris DeWild, as she showcases our glorious Dobson organ with a performance featuring music from the Baroque era to the present. The concert will also feature Kris on harp in collaboration with Dr. Cynthia Krenzel from Central College (clarinet) and Mackenzie Uhlenhopp from the University of Iowa (flute and voice). Kris is Lecturer in Music at Central College where she accompanies the A Cappella Choir and teaches piano and harp. She holds a B.A. in organ performance and music education from Central College and earned a graduate certificate in church music from Drake University where she studied organ with Carl Staplin and Ruth Harris.

Easter Celebration
Sunday, April 1, 8:45 and 11am
Westminster Sanctuary

Join us as we witness the promise of the resurrection together. We joyfully proclaim the good news that is at the very heart of the Gospel: that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead. Our Worship will be led by the Westminster Chorale, Brass, and Organ. Easter is a time of celebration, reflection, and renewal. It's a time when we can appreciate the beauty and potential of fresh starts and new beginnings.

Jazz Sunday
Sunday, April 8, 10am
Westminster Sanctuary

The popular Jazz Sunday returns to Westminster with a swinging program complementing our worship service. Led by Westminster's own, Karla Killingier, the program will feature the skills of local professionals and Westminster members, and will showcase the music of the big band era. Jazz Sunday will surely have you toe-tapping during and after the service!

Hymn Festival
Sunday, May 13, 10am
Westminster Sanctuary

The Westminster Chorale and the congregation of Westminster Presbyterian Church will "raise the roof" with spirited singing of sturdy hymns. You won't want to miss this inspirational service of praise.

All events are FREE
with FREE childcare.
