2018
FALL & WINTER
EVENTS

Welcome...

"Bluegrass Sunday"

Sunday, September 9, 9:15 a.m.

Westminster Sanctuary
The Big Joe Kinser Band

Sit back and enjoy the sweet sounds of the Sunday Morning String Band as they complement our service with old, sacred and gospel music. Comprised of fiddle, banjo, bass, and vocals, the performance will offer a bluegrass twist that will provide listeners with a taste Americana in our Sanctuary.

"Mikah Meyer"

Monday, September 24, 7:00 p.m.

Westminster Sanctuary

Featured in hundreds of media outlets, including the Today Show and NPR, Mikah Meyer is honoring his late father by experiencing all 400+ units of the U.S. National Park System in one road trip! This double world record trip will not only make him the youngest person to experience every unit, but also the sole person to do so in a continuous journey.

As an accomplished performer, Mikah has sung professionally with the Washington National Cathedral choirs, the Memphis Symphony, and various international ensembles.

Mikah's beautiful voice will grace Westminster's Sanctuary as he shares his experiences about his record-breaking trip as a gay man of faith.

"Hoot and Howl"

Organ Concert

Saturday, October 27, 7:00 p.m.

Westminster Sanctuary

Hoot-n-Howl is a performance that features family-friendly spooky organ music. The hour-long performance begins at 7pm will include fun audience participation that will leave listeners in a festive "spirit." A free carnival begins at 6pm in Westminster Hall with food, games, prizes and a kid's costume parade. All ages are welcome. Come to the carnival and enjoy the recognizable music and entertaining skits – a great night of memory making for all families!
